

Nanotechnology Seminar Series – Spring 2009

Seminars are Wednesdays at 11am in BABBIO 122.

Date	Title/Speaker	Sponsor/Host
1/21/09	Microscopy on the Nanotechnology Frontier David C Joy, Center for NanoPhase Materials Science, Oak Ridge National Laboratory	Nanotechnology Graduate Program (NGP) Prof. Libera, x5259
1/28/09	No seminar	-----
2/4/09	Biomicrosystems: Labs and Fabs for Nano-Bio Technology Gary Rubloff, University of Maryland	CEMS Department Prof. Lee, x8307
2/11/09	Optimal design of advanced plasmonic materials for subwavelength optics Maxim Sukharev, Arizona State University	PEP Department Prof. Strauf, x5639
2/18/09	TBD Greg Lowry, Carnegie Mellon University	CEOE Department Prof. Wazne, x8993
2/25/09	Optoelectric Micro/Nano Particle Manipulation Steve Wereley, Purdue University	ME Department Prof. Choi, x5579
3/4/09	Nanotechnology and Tissue Engineering Lakshmi Nair, University of Connecticut	CCBBME Department Prof. Yu, x5256
3/11/09	No seminar - Spring Recess	-----
3/18/09	TBD Dan Choi, University of Idaho	ME Department Prof. Yang, x5574
3/25/09	No seminar	-----
4/1/09	Vertical Single Carbon Nanotube Devices and Arrays Reginald Farrow, New Jersey Institute of Technology	ME Department Prof. Fisher, x8913
4/8/09	My Phytoremediation Journey and Metal Nanoparticle Formation Using Plants Jorge Gardea-Torresdey, The University of Texas at El Paso	CEOE Department Prof. Wazne, x8993
4/15/09	Block Copolymer Thin Films as Nanofabrication Templates Richard Register, Princeton University	Nanotechnology Graduate Program (NGP) Prof. Du, x5262

Coordinator: Prof. Frank Fisher, Mechanical Engineering, x8913
